IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION - JOIN BPIA TODAY!

BPIA is an educational, 501 (c) 3 charitable, non-profit membership association founded in 1989 to increase the involvement of African Americans and other people of African heritage in international affairs. BPIA fulfills its objectives in education, cultural exchange, economic development, and professional development through public education forums and conferences, referrals, a newsletter, networking and outreach activities, and award of grants and scholarships. As benefits of membership, current members:

Remain on BPIA's active mailing list • receive periodic updates on resources and opportunities in international affairs • receive free subscription to Global Visions newsletter • contribute financially to international education initiatives through BPIA grants and scholarships • contribute to operating expenses of the association • benefit from employment and consultancy referrals • enjoy networking opportunities with diverse groups of internationalists • receive a reduced BPIA conference registration rate • receive complimentary admission to special events as available • expand recruitment goals of member agencies and organizations • vote at the annual meeting.

Annual membership is open to individuals of all races, nationalities, religions and cultural identities, and to organizations that support BPIA's objectives. Current BPIA members include employees of government agencies, non-governmental organizations, international organizations, colleges and universities, private businesses, private voluntary organizations, and humanitarian relief agencies. Retired professionals are welcome, and are encouraged to lend their considerable knowledge and skills to BPIA's programs. Dues paid are fully deductible for Federal/State income tax purpose.
